Awards for Excellence in Art Design

Your Design Task

• Your task is to produce a piece of artwork that best reflects the theme.
• You may include a statement or caption to reinforce your visual image.
• You may use a variety of media (paint, crayon, pencil, ink, etc.). It must also be suitable for exhibition purposes.

Competition Conditions

1. The entrant must be from a non-government school in Queensland or the Northern Territory or a Queensland kindergarten.
2. Artwork must totally be the work of the entrant and should be in keeping with the competition theme.
3. An entrant may submit a maximum of three artworks. Each artwork must be that of an individual (i.e. no joint work) and the original work of the entrant.
4. Copyright remains with the artist; however, the artist will permit IEUA-QNT to publish or use any of the submitted artworks for non-profitable, promotional purposes. Submission of any artwork is taken as acceptance of these conditions.
5. Artworks may be painted, drawn, collage work, sculpture or photographic work but must be suitable for exhibition purposes.
6. Artworks should be NO LARGER than 100 cm x 60 cm. Your work must be easily transportable (if an award recipient).
7. Collection of artwork: Unless entry form indicates that artwork is to be returned to the school, artwork must be collected from our offices within 30 days following the Awards night otherwise artwork will be donated due to lack of storage space. If indicated that artwork is to be returned to the school, please provide appropriate packaging and postage.
